In his writings, Wojnarowicz “finds himself fissioned, transformed into the haywire ‘robotic kid looking through digital eyes past the windshield into the pre-invented world’” (239). Since 7 Miles a Second takes its text from the writings of Wojnarowicz’s writing – Larabee even quotes some of the same work as the comic. However, James Romberger and Marguerite Van Cook’s art further embodies these ideas of nuclear text in relation to the AIDS crisis.
